FISH TV AND GO RVING CANADA PARTNER TO PROMOTE CANADIAN TRAVEL

The partnership between two leaders in the outdoor industry promises to highlight Canadian travel

TORONTO, ON – Jan. 26, 2017 – Today, Fish TV, North America’s premier fishing and destination show and Go RVing Canada announce a new partnership.

“We’re excited about working together with a legendary company like Go RVing Canada,” said Leo Stakos, President of Fish TV. “We’re looking forward to helping promote travelling the great Canadian outdoors with friends and family in a way that only an RV adventure can provide.”

“We are very proud about this partnership between Go RVing Canada, Leo Stakos and Fish TV,” said Christopher Mahony, Executive Director of Go RVing Canada. “Leo and Fish TV are leaders in the outdoors industry, and this partnership will be an exciting hand in hand relationship.”

Fish TV spends many days on the road traveling to film locations and highlighting various regions across the country that RV enthusiasts will want to add to their travel experiences. This partnership will be a natural fit.
